EXPLORER EMERGENCIES

1.Recognition			Be able to suggest at least ten very different situations that could be classified as an emergency.
2.Knowledge	a		Demonstrate a knowledge, and use of EAR.
AND	b		Demonstrate how to approach an unconscious patient.
AND	c		Demonstrate how to identify if the patient is breathing.
AND	d		Explain the difference between venous and arterial bleeding.
AND	e		Demonstrate how to control all forms of external bleeding,
AND	f		Demonstrate how to use the fire extinguisher in your Troop meeting place or home.
AND	g		Know on what type of fire it should be used/not used.
3.Visit	a		visit one of the locations listed in Pioneer Emergencies No 3.
OR	b		arrange a visit to your Troop by a representative of one of those services.
4.Activity	a		By participating with your Patrol or other Scouts in two mock emergencies, demonstrate an understanding of the basic principles of first aid.
	b		Demonstrate the method of dealing with a patient in contact with a live electric wire.
	c	i	With your Patrol build a bush stretcher or an improvised stretcher
AND		ii	With your Patrol use this stretcher to carry a patient over a distance of 500m